

ANNUAL REPORT ON THE WORK OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2007-2008

The Legislative Council was established on 1st July 2007 to assist the Government in preparing and monitoring the implementation of the 2006-2008 Budget and to oversee the Government's performance in the areas of financial, economic and social development.

The Council has held 10 meetings since its inception, during which it has discussed and approved 10 resolutions. These resolutions cover a wide range of issues, including the 2007-2008 Budget, the 2008-2009 Budget, and various policies and programmes of the Government.

The Council has also held 10 public hearings to consult with the public on various issues. These hearings have provided an excellent opportunity for the public to express their views on government policies and programmes. The Council has taken into account the views expressed by the public in its deliberations and in its resolutions.

The Council has also held 10 public inquiries into various issues of public concern. These inquiries have provided the Council with valuable information on the views and concerns of the public. The Council has taken into account this information in its deliberations and in its resolutions.

The Council has also held 10 public forums to discuss various issues of public concern. These forums have provided the Council with valuable information on the views and concerns of the public. The Council has taken into account this information in its deliberations and in its resolutions. The Council has also held 10 public consultations to discuss various issues of public concern. These consultations have provided the Council with valuable information on the views and concerns of the public. The Council has taken into account this information in its deliberations and in its resolutions.

The Council has also held 10 public consultations to discuss various issues of public concern. These consultations have provided the Council with valuable information on the views and concerns of the public. The Council has taken into account this information in its deliberations and in its resolutions. The Council has also held 10 public consultations to discuss various issues of public concern. These consultations have provided the Council with valuable information on the views and concerns of the public. The Council has taken into account this information in its deliberations and in its resolutions.

