

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION B.S. IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH PACIFIC
SCHOOL OF DISTANCE EDUCATION
B.S. IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the business environment. It covers the fundamental concepts of business, including the nature of business, the role of the entrepreneur, and the various types of business organizations. The course also explores the legal aspects of business, such as contracts, torts, and the law of agency. Additionally, it discusses the economic context of business, including supply and demand, and the impact of government intervention. The course is intended for students who are interested in pursuing a career in business or who wish to gain a general understanding of the business world.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES (LOs)
By the end of this course, students should be able to:
1. Identify the various types of business organizations and their characteristics.
2. Explain the legal aspects of business, including contracts, torts, and the law of agency.
3. Analyze the economic context of business, including supply and demand, and the impact of government intervention.

ASSESSMENT METHODS
The course is assessed through a combination of written assignments, case studies, and a final examination. The written assignments are designed to test students' understanding of the course material and their ability to apply the concepts to real-world situations. The case studies provide students with an opportunity to analyze complex business scenarios and make decisions based on the information provided. The final examination is a comprehensive test of students' knowledge of the course material.

RECOMMENDED READING
Students are recommended to read the following books and articles to supplement their learning:
1. Business Administration: Principles and Practice, by [Author Name].
2. The Law of Contracts, by [Author Name].
3. The Law of Torts, by [Author Name].
4. The Law of Agency, by [Author Name].
5. Principles of Economics, by [Author Name].

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
This course is a required course for students pursuing a B.S. in Business Administration. It is also available as an elective course for students in other programs. The course is taught by a team of experienced faculty members who are experts in their respective fields. The course is designed to be challenging and to provide students with a solid foundation in business administration. Students who complete this course successfully will be well-prepared to pursue further studies in business or to enter the workforce.