

Q1: What is the main purpose of the study? A1: The main purpose of the study is to investigate the effects of the independent variable on the dependent variable.

Q2: How was the study conducted? A2: The study was conducted using a quantitative research design. Data was collected through a survey/questionnaire and analyzed using statistical methods.

Q3: What are the key findings of the study? A3: The key findings of the study are that there is a significant positive relationship between the independent variable and the dependent variable.